

Call for Entries

DEADLINE JUNE 20, 2022

Apply for our training and mentoring program with your audio visual project in development!

DESCRIPTION HESSENLAB

From October 15 to 18, 2022, we invite 25 emerging talents from the international field of moving images to apply with their audio-visual projects in the early stages of development for an intense four day training experience. Through thematic workshops and masterclasses with renowned international professionals from varying areas of the media and creative industries participants will work in-depth on their submitted projects.

The best three projects will be awarded. The awards will be endowed with:

- First prize: € 1.000
- Second prize: € 500
- Third prize: € 500
- The award will be presented on Tuesday October 18, 2022.

4 DAYS - OCTOBER 15 - 18, 2022

The program is accompanied by screenings, showcases and networking events.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

Applicants must have a first published audio-visual project completed in the field of:

Film, art, VR / AR or games

- Please note that you have to apply with an audio-visual project in development (preferably at an early stage).
- Thesis projects from universities are not eligible for entry.
- Applicants must not be enrolled at a university.
- Submissions may be made in the form of project outlines, scripts, screenplays and the like.
- Pair and group applications are permitted.

Participants will receive an accreditation for the entire B3 2022 program, which will run from October 15 - 23, 2022.

DESCRIPTION B3 BIENNIAL OF THE MOVING IMAGE

Format

International moving image festival with film program, exhibition, conference program and competition formats.

Target groups

Professionals and young talents working in the creative industries and the media, representatives from the economy, politics, and science as well as the interested general public.

Fields & topics

Film, art, VR / AR and games.

Partners

Frankfurt Book Fair, THE ARTS+, Film London, Astor Film Lounge Frankfurt and others.

Supported by

Hessian Ministry of Higher Education, Research, Science and the Arts.

B3 TALENT FORUM

B3 HessenLab is part of the B3 Talent Forum: An initiative of B3 in cooperation with HessenFilm und Medien GmbH.

B3 Talent Forum is the platform of B3 Festival to promote young talents (and young does not mean young in age). It is a space for upcoming creatives from all audiovisual fields. The program consists of screenings, showcases and networking events combined with a showroom of local and international works from all media fields. It is a great opportunity to connect with fellow creative minds, exchange ideas and get or give inspiration.

SUBMIT HERE

<https://vp.eventival.com/b3/2022>

Please note that our registration process is managed by our technical partner eventival.

CONTACT

Do you have any questions?
Please contact us at:

talentforum@b3biennale.com